Career of the Week

Investment
Banker

As an investment banker, you'll provide a range of financial services to companies, institutions and governments. You will help them achieve financial goals and implement long and short-term plans. You'll manage corporate, strategic and financial opportunities and you may also advise and lead management buyouts, raise capital and secure new deals.

Labour Market Fact

"When students first enter secondary school at age 11, their top three career ambitions are sports (29%), art/music (19%), and animal care (15%). By the time they reach GCSE year (age 16), the rankings have shifted, with health (16%) taking the top spot, followed by art/music (15%) and sport dropping into third place (13%)." Source

World Spotlight

Country: Singapore

Key Links: Study in Singapore | Visa Information

Key Information:

- Entry requirements vary by university, but you'll typically need a high school diploma or equivalent for undergraduate admission. Applications are made directly to each institution, as there is no centralised UCAS-style system.
- Given Singapore's high cost of living, financial planning is essential. Over half of international students receive financial aid when studying in Singapore.
- At the NUS (the oldest higher education institution in the country), undergraduate fees for international students range from S$20,000 to S$83,950 (£11,720 to £49,196), with most fees set at the lower end of this scale.

Uni Spotlight

"The London School of Economics and Political Science (LSE) is a world-leading university, specialising in social sciences. LSE was awarded University of the Year 2025 and ranked top in the UK for 2025 and 2026 by the Times and Sunday Times Good University Guide. Based in the heart of London, we are a global community of people and ideas that transform the world." Read more here.
